Britain and the World

Britain and the World is a series of books on ‘British world’ history. The editors invite book proposals from historians of all ranks on the ways in which Britain has interacted with other societies from the sixteenth century to the present. The series is sponsored by the Britain and the World society.

Martin Farr is General Series Editor for the Britain and the World book series. Michelle D. Brock is Series Editor for titles focusing on the pre-1800 period and Eric G. E. Zuelow is Series Editor for titles covering the post-1800 period.

Submission guidelines
Please refer to our website for further information on style and presentation of articles, at http://www.euppublishing.com/page/brw/submissions

Proofs
Proofs of all articles will be sent to authors for correction from Edinburgh University Press. Authors must return corrected proofs to the Britain and the World editors.

E-prints
Authors will receive a print PDF of their article upon publication. Authors can also purchase the issue in which their article is published at a 40% discount.

Copyright
It is a condition of publication in the journal that authors licence the intellectual property rights of their articles to Edinburgh University Press. This ensures efficient and consistent handling of requests from third parties to reproduce articles, and it will also allow the article to be disseminated to as wide a readership as possible. Authors retain the right to use their own material elsewhere, provided that the journal is acknowledged as the original place of publication, and Edinburgh University Press is notified in writing in advance.

Further information on copyright policy is available by contacting journals@eup.ed.ac.uk

Open Access
Edinburgh University Press supports ‘Green’ Open Access (Open Access Archiving) for all EUP journals, and offers optional ‘Gold’ Open Access via Edinburgh Open. Our full policy can be found on our website at: www.euppublishing.com/customer-services/authors/openaccess

Permissions
Information on how to request permission to use material from this journal is available at: www.euppublishing.com/customer-services/authors/permissions

Disclaimer
Statements of fact and opinion in the articles in Britain and the World are those of the respective authors and contributors and not of the editors or Edinburgh University Press. Neither Edinburgh University Press nor the editors make any representation, express or implied, in respect of the accuracy of the material in this journal and cannot accept any legal responsibility or liability for any errors or omissions that may be made.
